

Standard Catalog of World Paper Money - General Issues

What is better than the most up-to-date and largest catalog of world bank notes of the past five centuries? How about a CD version of this catalog which allows you to quickly and easily search for note listings and increase the pages to create a large-view version? With the new edition of the Standard Catalog of World Paper Money, General Issues CD, you'll find 25,100 bank note varieties issued between 1368 and 1960, by more than 230 note-issuing authorities from Afghanistan to Zanzibar and every country in between. In addition, each listing contains values in up to three condition grades, enhanced descriptions, and more than 8,000 quality photographs of notes. With this CD you'll save time searching for details about notes and improve on accurately identifying notes with the page enlargement option, among other benefits.
