

Music of the Soul: A Jewish Novel

They were the wonder couple: Sara, a gifted artist and musician, and her fiance , Lionel, a professional violinist with an endearing smile and a thoughtful personality. The fact that Sara was a South African Jew, and Lionel a gentile of German extraction, meant little to either of them. But a chance encounter with a Holocaust survivor and a harrowing trip to Germany to meet Lionel family leaves Sara changed forever. And so begins a dramatic, action packed story which takes the reader on a breathtaking adventure through three continents, through secrets of the past and hopes for the future. Originally published in 2000 by Targum Press, this Jewish novel has become out of print. It is now republished by the author for Amazon Kindle.
