Animated with the success of this expedition, he commanded the same shipwright to construct, upon the lake of Perislafl, several small vessels carrying guns; in which the czar sailed on. the 5th of February, the 3d of March, and the 5th of April, of the following year. On the 1st of May another vessel was launched, and on the 9th Peter returned to Moscow. The death of Branclt seems to have interrupted the increase of this little fleet; but did not prevent Peter from continuing his expeditions on the lake. Some extracts, from General Gordon's Journal, will show the eagerness with which the young monarch pursued his new occupation when such trifling incidents as weighing anchor, and sailing across a lake, are circumstantially recorded. 4 Gordon went on the 11th of August: to Perekop; and on the 14th. was entertained in due form and ceremony on board of the Admiral's Ship. On the 15th, he adds, 4 we sailed from one side of the lake to the opposite bank; on the 16th we got under weigh, and failed to the other side, where we again came to an anchor; on the 24th Gordon attended the czar on ship-board; on the 25th we departed from Pereslafl, and on the 31st reached Alexeyfsk. 5 But as the limits of a lake were too confined for the rising ambition of the czar, he hurried to A...
