

Sunday Drive

Girls left behind. Guys making bad choices. In his third book, Sunday Drive, photographer Luke Smalley continues his journey for truth inside the lives of small town youth. This poignant photo novella tells the story of consequence when innocence takes a wrong turn. Girls getting ready, girls getting anxious. Boys bored. Wide-eyed, raw off the football field. Visiting hours: 1 to 8 p.m. As in his past volumes, humor pervades: the sobering boys plight is juxtaposed at Smalleys bemusement of the girls preoccupation of what to wear.
