

Dance Music from the Ballets De Cour 1575-1651: Historical Commentary, Source Study, and Transcriptions from the Philidor Manuscripts (Dance and Music Series) (Wendy Hilton Dance and Music Series)

David Buchs informative volume is the first modern study, edition, and commentary dealing with almost all of the surviving French five-part scores of dance music from the ballets de cour, 1575-1651. These full scores are especially important since most ballets from this time are preserved only in two-part readings (melody and bass). The exception here is a newly-created five-part score for the Ballet des Nations based on an original two-part setting. Also included are the six Allemandes from 1575 to ca. 1600, a Ballet a cheval of 1615, a selection of miscellaneous Entrees from several ballets prepared for the Concert a Louis XIII par les Viollons et lest 12 Grands hautbois of 1627, and Philidors five-part reading of seventeen Entrees from the Ballet du Roy des Festes de Baccus of 1651.
