

First Tango in Paris July 2016: How to Dance Tango (First Tango in Cities Around the World)

Want to know how the Parisians dance tango? Want to know where to dance tango in the most interesting places in June 2016?

Want to know about Argentine Tango culture and history? This is the book for you! The author William Derik Rawson is from a famous Argentine family which helped to create the tango in the 1860s.

The family even has its own famous old tango called Tango Rawson. He has been dancing tango for twenty years around the world for fun and recently has been living in Paris for the past two years. Mr. Rawson has written his personal observations about the tango scene here in Paris. In the book he has made a list of the names and addresses of the current dance spots that are the most interesting, so travelers can find the best tango experiences quickly in just a few days. For the price of a cup of coffee you can take this e-book with you (on or off line from the Internet connection) and have a great time. Mr. Rawson has been dancing tango for 20 years all over the world. His family has a famous tango named after it called Tango Rawson which was composed in 1910 by Arolas and played during the Golden Age of Tango in Buenos Aires in the 1930s by the big orchestra of D'Arienzo (You can find it on You Tube by cutting and pasting this link <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=OYzaLWnXYbw> His ancestor Doctor Guillermo Rawson, was a native born Argentine in 1821 from San Juan, Argentina, a big wine producing area, after his family moved from Boston, Massachusetts. Doctor Rawson became the Minister of the Interior in 1863 in the first elected government and founded the Argentine Red Cross and also founded Patagonia for the Welsh people from England to start a colony. The capital is the city of Rawson where Welsh is still spoken even today. He also founded the wealthy suburb of Recoleta and is buried in the center of the famous Recoleta

Cemetery where Juan Peron and his wife Evita are also buried. The author, William Derik Rawson is a native Texan from Houston, Texas. He is a graduate of the University of California at Berkeley in San Francisco, California and went to high school in Houston, Texas and also in Geneva, Switzerland so he has many native Parisian friends. He speaks English, French and Spanish. He also lived and danced in Buenos Aires, Argentina for five years from 2006 to 2011 and in Berlin, Germany from 2012 to 2014. He works on the Internet and travels the world, enjoying the tango. You can do it too! Dancing is fun.
