

Impressions of Theophrastus Such

These eighteen essays were the last published work by George Eliot (a pseudonym for Mary Anne Evans, 1819-80). First published in 1879, they touch on topics ranging from plagiarism and self-deception to moral blindness and national consciousness. This book has often been overlooked, but it should not be. Eliot's great intellect and insight radiate from every page of this clever and provoking narrative, inspiring renewed respect.
